In a paper titled “Prostitution as a Social Evil in Nigeria: Issues and Challenges” [International Journal of Peace and Conflict Studies (IJPCS), Vol. 2, No 1, March] Tyoanande & Samson (2014) went into the world of prostitutes in Nigeria.

They observed that prostitutes are all over the streets, hotels, and hostels across the major cities of Nigeria. The summary of how they live their lives are presented in those charts. The data used for them have been extracted from the results of their surveys.
